LINDA BEAN'S OUTLOOK: LOBSTER FOR THE 21ST CENTURY

Linda Bean's Perfect Maine isn't just a brand name. As a lifelong native of Maine, Linda wanted to share with the world her inspired feelings for her home state. Its traditions, the spray of the sea, brisk mornings on the water and, of course, the freshest lobster available.

Her business started from a love of quality Maine Lobster, expanding rapidly to provide America with lobster the way it should be... more accessible, more affordable, more creative. Linda Bean is quickly changing the way the lobster industry does business: more jobs in Maine, fewer across the border, more emphasis on local goodness, less on luxury white tablecloths. And more fun with recipes and merchandising.

Every innovation for the 21st Century is of interest to her consumer goals for increasing the demand for perfect Maine lobster in the 21st Century.

Our menu features Linda Bean's Perfect Maine® signature dishes, with more to come. Enjoy Linda Bean's Maine Lobster here and take some home, either as live lobsters (we pack them for you to take on the plane) or as quick and easy lobster specialties for your freezer. With Linda, the apple doesn't fall far from the tree: from her Maine heritage you know that if Linda Bean is on the label, quality is on your table!
